American Express® Card Insurance Policy Number: 09NACCEN01

Eligible American Express Card Products

This Policy applies to the following American Express Card Account product only:

- (a) American Express Centurion Card.

About This Policy

This Policy sets out important information about the insurance benefits available to Card Members, Additional Card Members, their Spouses and Dependent Children. It explains the nature of the arrangements and relevant benefits and risks. If You feel that this product does not meet Your specific needs and intended coverage, this Policy may not be right for You. You may need to buy separate or additional insurance if this Policy does not cover You for all the things You need cover for.

This document provides general advice only. It does not take into account Your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for You.

There is no obligation to accept any of the benefits of this Policy. However, if You wish to make a claim under the cover provided within this Policy, You will be bound by the definitions, terms and conditions, exclusions and claims procedures set out in this document.

This Policy offers 3 main types of benefit and services:

1. Travel insurance benefits
2. Retail item cover
3. Personal assistance services

Cancelled or Suspended Cards

If your card is cancelled or suspended, you are not entitled to cover under this Policy. It is your responsibility to make sure that your minimum repayments are paid on time and that you comply with your American Express Card Account terms and conditions. Refer to Your American Express Card Account terms and conditions or please contact American Express by calling the number on the back of your Card to obtain a copy.

Termination

Cover will be terminated at the earlier of the following:

- Your American Express Card Account is cancelled or suspended; or
- termination of the Group Policy.

Upon termination of the Group Policy, the insurance benefits will no longer be available to Card Members after the termination date. If You have satisfied the eligibility criteria prior to the termination of the Group Policy, cover is still available with respect to the cover section(s) that You are eligible for. American Express will always notify You in advance if the Group Policy is to be terminated.

Remember to Check This Policy

It is important to check this Policy from time to time, particularly before You travel to remind yourself of what is and isn't covered. Some things You might consider doing whilst travelling might not be covered (for example, jet skiing, bungee jumping or hiring a scooter if You don't have a motorcycle licence).

You may need to buy separate or additional insurance if this Policy does not cover You or the things You need cover for.

Please familiarise yourself with this Policy. We want to ensure You are clear about what it covers and what it does not cover or excludes. If You are unclear about anything in this document, please call 1800 236 023 and Our insurance team will be happy to assist You with any enquiries.

Always Take Care When Travelling

Make sure You have checked the most up-to-date Australian Government travel advice before You go on a Trip to understand any specific risks for Your destination. You also need to make sure You take care with Your belongings, make sure You keep valuable possessions on You and never leave Your luggage Unattended (for example, in a car overnight). This insurance is not designed to cover carelessness or high-risk activities, so be a sensible and prudent traveller.

Making a Claim

If You need to make a claim, keep supporting documents and proof of any loss, including all police reports, sales receipts and card statements showing any purchases made. See Section 'How To Make A Claim' for more detail.

Changes to This Policy

The cover under this Policy may be updated from time to time. A copy of the current policy wording can be obtained by calling the number on the back of Your American Express Card. This document replaces and supersedes any Policy issued prior to the effective date.

Important Things to Know About This Policy

We have listed a number of important things (below) that You should know about this Policy. This information is not intended to be a complete list of all coverage sections, terms, conditions or exclusions under this Policy. Rather, the information is intended as a quick reference point to assist You in Your understanding of this Policy.

Excess

Where applicable, an Excess is applied for each Event.

If a claim is covered, the Excess is first deducted from the amount We will pay and before any relevant depreciation and limits have been applied to the claim amount.

The applicable Excess amount is specified in the Schedule of Benefits.

An Excess may also be a waiting period, which is the amount of time You have to wait until the benefit may become payable.

Examples

The below examples are provided for illustrative purposes only. Each claim will be assessed individually, based on the facts relative to the specific claim

Example A – Excess applied:	Example B – Excess and depreciation applied:	Example C – Excess and depreciation applied to more than one Event:
Anna books accommodation to the Sunshiny caravan park. Her Trip with the family is in summer, which is 3 months away. A week before the start of the family Trip, her son has an accident at school and breaks his leg. Unfortunately, he needs surgery and the Doctor confirms it's best to be at home for the recovery. Anna paid $1,200 for the accommodation. The Excess is $250. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Deduct the Excess of $250 Check the total cover limits and sub limits in the Schedule of Benefits. The amount claimable is below these limits. Calculation for the amount payable: (-Excess) + accommodation = amount payable (-$250) + $1,200 = $950 claim payment.	Jane travels to Brazil and while in Brazil her laptop is stolen. She reports the theft to the police and provides Us with the required documentation. Jane paid $6,000 for her laptop 12 months prior to this Event. Jane's Excess is $250. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Deduct the Excess of $250 Establish original purchase price of the laptop: $6,000 Apply depreciation*: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2.5% per month for 12 months = 30% depreciation. • 30% of $6,000 = $1,800 total depreciation. Establish current value of the laptop by subtracting depreciation from the purchase price of the laptop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $6,000 - $1,800 = $4,200 Check the total and per item limit shown in the Schedule of Benefits and select the lower of current value of the laptop or the item limit. If the per item limit is $2,500 which is lower than the current value $4,200, hence We take the lower number = $2,500. The $250 Policy Excess is not deducted from the $2,500 per item limit in this instance, since Jane's loss is higher than the per item limit payable + Excess. $2,500 claim payment.	Rob and his wife travelled to France for 14 days. On the 4th day of their Trip, Rob slips down the stairs at the hotel. Thankfully, it's not a major injury, but he did twist his ankle and needs to seek medical attention. He was billed $500 for the Doctor's appointment including some scans and medication. On the 8th day, Rob had his laptop stolen, which was worth $1,000 when it was purchased 6 months ago. Unfortunately, on the last day of their Trip, Rob's wife then lost her Smartphone worth $900 that was purchased directly before their Trip commenced. When they return to Australia, Rob submitted a claim for the 3 Events. As Rob and his wife had 3 Events during their Trip to France, an Excess would be applied to each of the Events (and Covered Persons). Claim 1: (-$250) Excess + $500 Medical costs = $250 claim payment. Claim 2: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Deduct the Excess of $250 Establish original purchase price of the laptop: $1,000 Apply depreciation*: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2.5% per month for 6 months = 15% depreciation. • 15% of $1,000 = $150 total depreciation. Establish current value of the laptop by subtracting depreciation from the purchase price of the laptop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $1,000 - $150 = $850 Calculation for the amount payable: (-Excess) + current value = amount payable (-$250) + $850 = $600 claim payment. Claim 3: (-$250) Excess + $900 Smartphone = $650 claim payment.

*For depreciation details, please review Section H – Personal Baggage, Valuables, Money and Travel Documents Cover

Pre-Existing Medical Conditions

This Policy does not cover any costs incurred from or relating to any Pre-Existing Medical Condition under Sections A – N (below). For example, it does not provide cover if You need emergency medical treatment overseas for an existing illness or if You need to Cancel Your Trip because a Close Relative's existing medical condition deteriorates before You travel. If You have Pre-existing Medical Conditions, this cover may not be right for You. Before Your Qualifying Booking is made, You should review this Policy to make sure it provides the right cover for You and Your health situation.

Pregnancy and Travel Insurance Benefits

It's important to understand how Your travel insurance benefits under this Policy may be limited if You are pregnant. These are summarised below.

When Does the Travel Insurance Cover You if You Are Pregnant?

If You are pregnant, You will be covered for unforeseen emergency medical treatment whilst overseas up to 8 weeks before Your estimated date of delivery. However, You will not be covered for costs associated with the actual birth of Your child overseas or any pregnancy-related medical conditions that You were already suffering before Your Qualifying Booking was made. For more information see – When are You Not Covered if You are pregnant? (below).

Two key sections of this Policy that You should be aware of are:

1. Section F - Medical Emergency Expenses Cover:

You are covered for Events arising from or related to Your pregnancy when You are on an International Return Trip, if You have a sudden and unexpected Injury or Illness, which:

- a. occurs more than 8 weeks before Your estimated date of delivery; and
- b. is not otherwise excluded within this Policy.

2. Section A - Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover:

You are covered if You have a sudden and unexpected Injury or Illness arising from or related to Your pregnancy that prevents You from going on the Trip or continuing the Trip, and which:

- a. is confirmed by medical evidence provided by a treating Doctor;
- b. occurs more than 8 weeks before Your estimated date of delivery; and
- c. is not otherwise excluded within this Policy.

When Are You Not Covered if You Are Pregnant?

You are not covered for any costs arising from or related to:

1. any Pre-existing Medical Condition;
2. any past medical condition(s) relating to a previous pregnancy or if You have experienced pregnancy complications prior to Your Qualifying Booking being made;
3. Your pregnancy under Medical Emergency Expenses Cover or Trip Cancellation and Amendment Cover within 8 weeks of Your estimated date of delivery;

4. any costs under Medical Emergency Expenses Cover arising from childbirth or the health of a newborn child. This exclusion applies irrespective of the stage of pregnancy at which the child is born; meaning a newborn (whether premature or otherwise) is not considered a Covered Person under this Policy if the child was born on the Trip;
5. any costs under Medical Emergency Expenses Cover arising from or relating to an abortion, unless an abortion is medically necessary to protect the health and safety of the mother following an Injury or Illness, as determined by a treating Doctor;
6. fertility treatment or treatment associated with an assisted reproduction program including but not limited to, in vitro fertilisation (IVF).

Exclusions Within This Policy

As with all insurance, there are certain exclusions that apply. Some exclusions only apply to certain benefits under this Policy, while other exclusions apply to all claims. You should read the following:

- a. General Exclusions and General Conditions sections within this Policy, which apply to all claims.
- b. Each cover section includes information about what We cover and any terms and conditions and exclusions that apply to the cover section.

To ensure You understand when We will pay for a claim, You should read each section carefully. You should make sure to check this Policy before You travel to make sure that You, and all the things You want to do, are covered.

Fraud

Chubb takes insurance fraud seriously. Creation or submission of false documents, or exaggerating a genuine claim is considered insurance fraud. Such behaviour has a negative impact on the cost of insurance for all customers.

We use Our dedicated special investigations unit at Chubb to detect and investigate selected claims daily. When the evidence supports it, Chubb will report suspect claims to the police and dedicate resources to assisting any potential criminal prosecutions.

Australian Law

Your Policy is governed by the laws of the State or Territory of Australia where Your Home is. Any dispute or action in connection with Your Policy will be conducted and determined in the courts of the State or Territory of Australia in which Your Home is.

Australian Currency

Chubb Assistance (In the Event of an Emergency)

Emergency Assistance Around the World

In the event of a medical emergency whilst overseas simply phone +61 2 8907 5666 to get immediate help in locating medical assistance in Your local area.

For all non-emergency matters, contact Chubb Customer Service on 1800 236 023, or You can submit Your claim online by visiting the Chubb Claims Centre for American Express: www.americanexpress.com/australia/claims

Where Your claim is excluded or falls outside this Policy coverage, We may still provide You with some emergency assistance. If We do this, the provision of emergency assistance by Chubb Assistance will not in itself be an admission of liability.

Considerable effort is made to locate, assess and reassess medical facilities and other services worldwide. However, the medical standards, sanitary conditions, reliability of telephone systems and facilities for medical services differ from country to country and accordingly, it is not always possible to have control over these factors. In the circumstances, responsibility for any loss, medical complication or death resulting from any factor beyond Our control, cannot be accepted by Chubb Assistance or Us.

If You Change Your American Express Card Account Product, or Your American Express Card Account Is Cancelled or Suspended

If You change Your American Express Card Account product to another card offered by American Express (e.g. a card downgrade or upgrade), you will not be entitled to cover under this Policy and the insurance benefits will stop.

The card you hold at the date of the claim Event will determine which insurance benefits you have. If your new American Express card comes with insurance benefits, you may be entitled to cover under that new policy. You should always check before changing to another American Express card whether that card comes with insurance benefits, and the terms and conditions associated with any such insurance benefits to ensure the level of cover is right for You.

If your American Express Card Account is suspended or cancelled, then there is no cover under this Policy.

Please see the table below for more information.

A different American Express card product with or without insurance benefits.	Your American Express Card Account associated with this Policy.	This Policy will apply. Cover is subject to the terms, conditions, limits and exclusions of this Policy.
Card Suspension or Cancellation
Your American Express Card Account product associated with this Policy.	Your American Express Card Account has been cancelled or suspended.	This Policy does not apply; there are no insurance benefits available to you as your American Express Card Account has been cancelled or suspended.

The following examples are provided to illustrate how Your cover may be affected by changes to Your card.

Example A – No American Express Card Account in place at the date of claim Event	Example B – Different American Express Card in place at the date of claim Event
Joan holds an American Express Card Account that has travel insurance cover and makes a Qualifying Booking for a Trip that she intends to take later in the year. Before she starts her Trip, Joan decides to cancel her American Express Card Account. Upon cancelling her American Express Card Account, Joan does not apply for another American Express Card. Subsequently, Joan travels and unfortunately her luggage is lost in transit to her scheduled destination. Joan does not have any entitlement to make a claim under the Policy for the lost luggage as Joan had cancelled the American Express Card Account, which means Joan did not hold a valid American Express Card Account at the date of the claim Event and therefore no longer has access to the travel insurance cover.	Tim makes a Qualifying Booking for a Trip using his American Express Card Account that has travel insurance cover. Prior to travelling, Tim arranges with American Express to downgrade his card to another American Express card with a lower fee that has less travel insurance benefits. On the Trip, Tim suffers an Injury. The previous American Express Card Account which Tim held included Medical Emergency Expenses cover, but the new card held by Tim at the date of the claim Event does not include Medical Emergency Expenses cover. Tim cannot therefore make a claim for Medical Emergency Expenses as the policy in force at the date of the claim Event does not include this type of cover.

DEPRECIATION – PERSONAL BAGGAGE, VALUABLES, MONEY AND TRAVEL DOCUMENTS COVER

We will apply depreciation (wear and tear) to determine the value of Your Personal Baggage and Valuables as specified in the table below.

Depreciation considers an item's age, damage or change that is caused to an item when it is used normally. Depreciation will be calculated from the date of purchase of the item until the date of claimable Event, based on the original purchase price.

For example: If You purchased a Smartphone for $1,000, went on a Trip and the phone was stolen, We will calculate the number of months between the date You purchased Your phone and the claimable Event date. Suppose the number of months is 6, We will calculate the depreciation as follows:

- (-Excess) + purchase price – depreciation = amount payable
- Number of months = 6
- 6 multiplied by depreciation for Smartphone of 2.5% = 15%
- Depreciation: $1,000 multiplied by 15% = $150
- Amount payable for Your stolen Smartphone: (-250) + $1,000 - $150 = $600
