* The Authorised Signatory is the individual within your organisation with the authority to approve American Express applications.

Note: All features of the American Express Qantas Corporate Card are subject to the Terms and Conditions of Membership (exclusions and limitations apply). The number of your American Express Qantas Corporate Card Account will change. American Express disclaims any liability regarding failure of any transactions or services as a result of the new Card number, if you fail to update your Direct Debits, periodic payments or Traveller Profiles with that new Card number.

If your old Account number carries a balance, you must continue to make payments towards the outstanding balance on your old Card until the balance is cleared. Any balance or transactions currently listed on your old Account number will not be transferred to your new Card. You will receive a separate statement for your old Card until the balance is cleared.
