From Beverly Hills to the West End

Celebrating 30 years since the iconic film's release, and 250 years of Jane Austen, Clueless The Musical is a new musical comedy based on the Paramount Pictures classic film – the modern spin on Jane Austen's Emma – written by the original film-director Amy Heckerling with all new original music by KT Tunstall, performed at the Trafalgar Theatre.

Cher Horowitz is the most popular student at Beverly Hills High, renowned for her unique talent of finding love for others. She's about to embark on her biggest project yet – making over her awkward new friend, Tai, and setting her up with the most handsome boy in school. But what happens to Cher when, for the first time, everything is not perfect? This fresh musical comedy is fun, fashionable, and, like, so way cool.

Our Cardmembers have access to Amex Reserved Tickets^{®5} from 30 January - 24 May. Max 6 tickets per booking.⁶
