- (n) Subject to restrictions set out in this Agreement or the Card Member Agreement, you shall instruct the Card Member to use the Card or Account for your business use, i.e. to pay Merchants for goods and/or services for travel and entertainment in relation to your business or for use or consumption in the course of conducting your business (and not for re-sale), and in accordance with your policies and procedures.
- (o) As a special concession, where you have a Corporate Card or Corporate Purchasing Card Account, we may allow the Card or Account to be used for the purchase of Items for Resale provided that:

If a Card Member enrolls in our Express Cash Service, participation may be governed by a separate agreement with the Card Member, but at all times you will be liable for such Charges regardless of the liability type elected by you in the Account Application.

4. Payment

- (a) You agree to pay all Charges shown on each monthly Account statement on receipt. Each monthly statement of Charges shall be deemed to have been received by you or the Card Member (depending on the billing system in place) upon the date of the actual receipt or the seventh day following its dispatch by us. In the event of your non-receipt of our monthly statement you shall be liable to make payment of the Charges within 21 days of incurring the Charge or earlier if requested by us. Failure to pay on time and in full is a material breach of this Agreement. You agree to notify us in writing of any omission from or error on your statement within 60 days of the date of the statement. If you do not do so, the statement will be deemed as conclusive and binding on you.
- (b) If you have a Corporate Purchasing Card Account, you agree to pay all Charges shown on each monthly Account statement by direct debit or eftpos no later than 14 days after the date of the statement. In the case of Corporate Meeting Card, you agree to pay all Charges shown on each monthly Account statement by direct debit or eftpos no later than 21 days after the date of the statement.
- (c) Payments will be credited to the relevant Account or Card Member Account when received, cleared and processed. The time for payments to reach us for clearing and processing depends on the payment method, system and provider used to make payment to us. You must allow sufficient time for us to receive, clear and process payments by the due date taking into account weekends and public holidays, when we and/or your or our payment service provider may not be open for business.
- (d) You and the Card Member agree not to deduct or withhold, without our prior written approval, any amount shown as due on any Account statement or data feed. You will pay us the full amount shown on the Account Statement or data feed irrespective of whether you are or intend disputing an amount(s) contained on your Account Statement or data feed. If you believe any Charge shown on a statement is in error or in dispute, you may request and we may set up and maintain for a reasonable period, a temporary credit on the Account for the disputed Charge while we investigate the error or you seek to resolve the dispute. Should the dispute be resolved in your favour, we shall credit the amount(s) that were previously disputed to your Account and it will appear on the next issue of your monthly Account Statement.
- (e) We may, in our sole discretion, accept late or part payments or any payment described as being in full or in settlement of a dispute. If we do, we shall not lose any of our rights under this Agreement or at law, including the right to payment in full, and it does not mean we agree to change this Agreement. We may credit part payments to any of the outstanding Charges.
- (f) You must always pay us in Singapore Dollars, unless we agree otherwise in writing.
- (g) A certificate signed by one of our officers stating the amount that you and/or the Card Member owes us under this Agreement is proof of such amount. A copy of any document relating to the Account with us, or produced from data received by us electronically from a Merchant, shall be admissible to prove the contents of that document for any purpose.

8. Problems with Bills or Purchases

- (a) You are responsible for confirming the correctness of your monthly statement and, if you notify us immediately of a disputed Charge we will take reasonable steps to assist you. If a Merchant issues a credit for a Charge, we will credit the amount to your Account on receipt. If a problem cannot be resolved immediately then pending resolution of the problem, we may agree to place a temporary credit on any disputed amount, but you must pay us for all other Charges. If, at your request, we agree to charge back a seller of goods or services, you agree to indemnify us for any claim against us based upon the rejection of the goods or services or that charge back.
- (b) Unless required by law, we are not responsible for goods or services obtained with the Card or Account, or if any Merchant does not accept the Card. You must raise any claim or dispute direct with the Merchant concerned. You are not entitled to withhold payment from us because of such claim or dispute.
- (c) You agree that if requested to do so you shall provide us with written confirmation in relation to your claim of Unauthorised Charges including without limitation, supplying any or all of the following, a statutory declaration, an affidavit of forgery and/or a copy of an official police report. By reporting the existence of Unauthorised Charges, you agree to allow American Express to release any information that you have provided or which is the subject of an investigation into the Unauthorised Charges to the police and any other investigative or statutory authority. You also agree that when requested you shall provide all reasonable assistance and relevant information to us and/or the police in relation to your claim of Unauthorised Charges.
- (d) You may authorise a Merchant to bill Recurring Charges to your Card or Account. To avoid potential disruption of Recurring Charges or the provision of goods or services, in the case of a replacement Card or cancelled Card it is always your responsibility to contact the Merchant and provide replacement Card or Account information or alternate payment arrangements. You and/or the Card Member will be liable for Recurring Charges incurred on a cancelled Card or Account. To stop Recurring Charges, you must have the right to do so by law or under your arrangement with the Merchant and you must advise the Merchant in writing or in another way permitted by the Merchant.
- (e) If we agree to place any limits or restrictions on the type of Charges incurred on any Card or Account, we are obliged only to use reasonable efforts to apply such limits or restrictions and this does not affect your liability for any Charges. We are unable to block or prevent Charges at certain Merchants, including but not limited to Merchants who do not process Charges via electronic terminals or who have provided us with a description of their own activities, which may be incomplete or inaccurate. In classifying Merchants in our system or records, we are entitled to rely on any description of their own activities provided by such Merchants.

9. Lost/stolen Cards and misuse of Accounts

- (a) You must ensure that we are informed immediately by telephone at 1800 732 2566 (or such other number advised by us to you or to Card Members from time to time) if:
  - (i) a Card is lost or stolen;
  - (ii) a replacement Card has not been received by the Card Member;
  - (iii) someone else learns a Code;
  - (iv) there is suspicion that a Card or Account is being misused or a transaction is unauthorised; or
  - (v) there is suspicion that a transaction has been processed incorrectly.
- (b) You agree to cooperate with us in our efforts to control fraudulent use of any Card or Account, including but not limited to providing us with any declarations, affidavits and/or copies of any official police reports, as reasonably requested. You agree that we may provide information to the relevant governmental authorities concerning the activities of you, a Designated Employee and/or Card Member under the Programme.

10. Online Service

- (a) You must ensure that access to the Online Service is restricted only to Designated Employees whom you see fit to have access and that such persons access the Online Service only via our web site as notified to you from time to time, using the assigned user id and password ("Security Information"). You must implement and exercise reasonable measures and controls to ensure that only such persons access the Online Service.
- (b) You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining your own compatible computer system, software and communications lines required to properly access the Online Service. We have no responsibility or liability in respect of your software, equipment or communication line costs.
- (c) If, at any time, whether before or after this Agreement comes into effect, American Express introduces or has introduced any third party software provider to the Company, the Company acknowledges and agrees that American Express makes no representation nor warranty expressly or impliedly as to the functionality or reliability of any software provided by that third party to the Company, nor as to the availability, quality or duration of software support or upgrades by the third party. Moreover, the Company acknowledges and agrees that American Express shall not be liable at all for the quality, merchantability or fitness for purpose of any software provided by a third party. The Company hereby agrees that its sole recourse for any damages suffered arising from the use of, or any aspect of the software, will be to the provider of the software.
- (d) The Security Information is confidential to the respective Designated Employee. You must ensure that the Security Information is not shared with any other person or recorded in an insecure location accessible to anyone else. We are not responsible for any misuse of the Online Service by you, your Designated Employee or anyone else, nor for disclosure of confidential information by us where you have failed to maintain the security of the Security Information.
- (e) We may terminate, withdraw, modify or suspend the use of the Online Service at any time. Except where security requires it or in circumstances beyond our control, or in the event of fraud or your breach of these terms of use for the Online Service, we will give you prior notice of our withdrawal or suspension of the Online Service in accordance with the "Changes to this Agreement" section of this Agreement.
- (f) Whilst we will make commercially reasonable efforts to notify you each time a statement is posted, you are responsible for regularly retrieving your statement for each billing period.
- (g) You agree that access to the Online Service is subject to the website terms of use as displayed on the American Express website.

11. Suspension

We may immediately suspend a Card or Account if we suspect unauthorised or fraudulent use, or if we believe the Account or Card may not be paid in full and on time and/or for other related reasons. In such cases, this Agreement will continue, and you and/or the Card Member will remain responsible for all authorised Charges incurred on the Card or Account. We may also require you to provide us with security in order to avoid suspension of any Card or Account.

12. Charges made in Foreign Currencies

If we receive a transaction or refund for processing in a currency other than Singapore Dollars ("Foreign Charge"), our currency conversion affiliate, AE Exposure Management Limited ("AEEML") will convert it into US Dollars first (unless it was submitted to us in US Dollars) and convert it from US Dollars into Singapore Dollars. The conversion will take place on the date the Foreign Charge is processed by American Express, which may not be the same date on which the Foreign Charge was made as it depends on when the Foreign Charge was submitted to American Express. Exchange rate fluctuations can be significant. The exchange rate AEEML uses, which is called the "American Express Exchange Rate", will be:

- the rate required by applicable law or used as a matter of local custom or convention in the territory where the transaction or refund is made (in which case AEEML will look to be consistent with that custom or convention), or where this doesn't apply;
- based on interbank rates selected from customary industry sources on the business day prior to the processing date.

We will increase the Foreign Charge by a single conversion commission of 2.95%. The American Express Exchange Rate is set each day from Monday to Friday including public holidays except for Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

You acknowledge that any refund of a Foreign Charge may be different to the Foreign Charge amount originally processed on your Card Account. The difference is generally because:

- the refund and Foreign Charge may be processed on different days with different rates;
- the refund may be only a partial refund for the Foreign Charge; or
- where third parties convert charges in foreign currency, those third parties may treat refunds differently to the original foreign currency charge.

When making a transaction in foreign currency, you may be given the option to allow a third party (for example, the retailer) to convert the transaction into Singapore Dollars before submitting it to us. If you decide to do this, then that third party will determine the exchange rate and any commission or fees payable for the currency conversion and submit that transaction to us in Singapore Dollars, meaning we will not convert the transaction or apply a currency conversion fee. It is your decision whether to use such third party currency conversion or not and in such cases, you should check the fees and charges before completing the transaction to ensure that you do not pay more than necessary.

- (b) The parties shall treat this Agreement as confidential and may not disclose any of its contents to any third party without the other party's prior written consent, or unless legally required by court order, applicable law, regulation or any relevant regulatory or supervisory authority.

- (b) Except where required by law, we will not be responsible or liable to you for any loss or damage arising in relation to:
  - (i) delay or failure by a Merchant to accept the Card or Account, the imposition by a Merchant of conditions on the use of the Card or Account or the manner of a Merchant's acceptance or non-acceptance of the Card or Account;
  - (ii) goods and/or services purchased with the Card or Account, or their delivery or non-delivery;
  - (iii) use of the Card in a machine that dispenses goods, services or cash or other means of payment;
