6. Permanent Total loss of Speech and Hearing	1,000,000
7. Permanent Total Loss of Hearing in:
(a) both Ears	750,000
(b) one Ear	150,000

Proviso:

- (a) The occurrence of any specific event of loss for which indemnity is payable at the principal Benefit Amount of HK$1,000,000 under this Section shall at once terminate all insurance under this Policy with respect to that Insured Person reporting such loss, but such termination shall be without prejudice to any claim originating out of the Accident causing such loss.
- (b) The aggregate maximum payable under this Section for Basic Platinum Card member, his/her Spouse and Children shall be 200% of principal Benefit Amount and for the Children of the Basic Platinum Card member shall be 25% of principal Benefit Amount.

- (c) No indemnity will be paid under any circumstances for more than one of the above item 1-7 events of loss, in respect of Bodily Injuries arising out of the same occurrence.

Condition:

- (a) Satisfactory proof to the Company of death or Bodily Injury sustained for which a claim is made hereunder shall be provided upon demand at the own expense of the Insured Person or his/her personal representative. Death or Bodily Injury sustained shall not be presumed solely on account of the disappearance of the Insured Person.

Section II - Medical Expenses

The Company shall reimburse an Insured Person in respect of medical and/or surgical fees, Hospital, nursing home or emergency dental charges (incurred as a result of Bodily Injury) necessarily incurred outside of Country of Residence/Place of Residence and for which treatment is prescribed by a Physician as a result of Bodily Injury sustained or Sickness contracted during a Journey outside the Country of Residence/Place of Residence and the Period of Insurance by an Insured Person.

The Company shall further reimburse the Insured Person the related medical expenses incurred within three (3) months after returning to his/her Country of Residence/Place of Residence and subject to a maximum of HK$30,000 only in the case for follow-up medical treatment of the same Bodily Injury sustained by the Insured Person as given or prescribed by a physician to during the Journey

Proviso:

- (a) All hospitalisation should be notified to Chubb Assistance as soon as possible and the Insured Person must obtain a medical assessment and monitoring from Chubb Assistance. Failure to do so may prejudice the Insured Person's claim.
- (b) Any expenses which are recoverable from any other insurance policy or state insurance program which is applicable to the Insured Person(s) is not covered under this Section.
- (c) Expenses incurred for dental crowns and bridges are excluded from cover under this Section.
- (d) The total liability of the Company under this Section shall not exceed HK$1,000,000 for each Insured Person.

Section III - Evacuation and Repatriation Expenses

If during a Journey and the Period of Insurance an Insured Person shall suffer serious Bodily Injury or Sickness and shall call the Chubb Assistance service through American Express Platinum Cards Service Hotline for urgent medical evacuation or emergency assistance anywhere outside of Hong Kong, the following benefits/services will be provided:

1. Emergency Medical Assistance

1.1 Dispatch of essential medicines not readily available

If medical supplies are necessary for treatment of an unforeseeable disease or Accident of an Insured Person and which cannot be obtained locally, Chubb Assistance will do its utmost to obtain and dispatch them to the Insured Person at the earliest possible time. The cost of such medicines, any duties and taxes, if applicable, will be borne by the Insured Person, including any duties and taxes (if advanced). These will be billed to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account within thirty (30) days from the date of the service.

1.2 Medical assessment of treatment received locally / Medical monitoring

Chubb Assistance shall take all reasonable steps to obtain a medical assessment of the treatment of an Insured Person and co-ordinate and, where it is medically advisable in the opinion of a Physician designated by Chubb Assistance ("Designated Physician"), monitor the local treatment until the Insured Person is released from treatment or is sent home. These steps include but are not limited to:

- (a) The Designated Physician shall follow up with the local Physician, discuss the preliminary diagnosis and evaluate the recommended treatment based on the information made available to the Designated Physician;
- (b) The Designated Physician will contact the local treating Physician throughout the treatment period, when deemed medically advisable, to monitor the progress of the Insured Person and to determine the adequacy and necessity of treatment being provided to the Insured Person. In cases where the Designated Physician does not deem it medically advisable to contact the local attending Physician every forty-eight (48) hours, or more frequently, while the Insured Person is in a Hospital, a representative for Chubb Assistance will contact the Insured Person at least every forty-eight (48) hours, if possible, and if not, will contact the local Physician in order to monitor the progress of the Insured Person.

1.3 Medical evacuation & repatriation

If the Designated Physician determines that an Insured Person is not receiving adequate medical treatment locally Chubb Assistance will organise his/her transfer to a more appropriate Hospital, at no cost to the Insured Person. If necessary, depending on the Bodily Injury or Sickness and if medically advisable, the Insured Person will be repatriated to the medical centre facility closest to his/her Place of Residence. If transportation is required, it will be arranged by one of the following options: first class train, couchette or sleeping car, taxi, ambulance, commercial air carrier (on a scheduled flight - business class where possible), or air ambulance or any medically appropriate transportation means. Repatriation will not be provided for Sickness or Bodily Injury of a mild nature, which can be treated locally and does not prevent the Insured Person from continuing his/her Journey.

1.4 Emergency funds

To minimise financial inconvenience to an Insured Person in an emergency, the following services will be provided:

- (a) When Chubb Assistance has been provided with information that the Insured Person is covered by a health insurance policy which would cover the services in question Chubb Assistance shall first ask the medical facility or local Physician to bill the insurance company of the Insured Person and, if the medical facility or local Physician is unwilling to do so, shall then request the medical facility or local Physician to bill the Insured Person directly, rather than requiring the Insured Person to pay on site.
- (b) Where a local Physician or medical facility refuses to provide needed medical services to the Insured Person without receiving advanced payment for those services and/or obtaining a guarantee, upon the request of the Insured Person Chubb Assistance shall guarantee and, when necessary, advance for such payment, up to US$8,000. If the Insured Person is unconscious and Chubb Assistance determines it is necessary to offer such a guarantee or to advance payment to a local Physician or medical facility, Chubb Assistance shall do so on the Insured Person's behalf if a family member is not available for this purpose. All such payments will be billed to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account.

1.5 Visit of an immediate family member to an Insured Person's Hospital bedside

Chubb Assistance shall arrange and pay for emergency round trip economy class transportation for one family member of an Insured Person to travel to the place of treatment of the Insured Person if:

- (a) The Insured Person is travelling alone or with a Child of sixteen (16) years old or younger, or with a travelling companion who is not a family member and who has been required to leave the Insured Person; and
- (b) A Designated Physician, in consultation with the local Physician, reasonably anticipates that the Insured Person will be hospitalized for ten (10) consecutive days or more, Chubb Assistance shall arrange accommodation for the family member but shall have no responsibility for the cost of the accommodation, meals or other expenses of the family member.

1.6 Repatriation of dependent Child(ren)

If the dependent Child(ren) aged sixteen (16) years old or younger, travelling with an Insured Person at the time of Bodily Injury or Sickness of the Insured Person, are left unattended, Chubb Assistance shall arrange and pay for one-way economy class transportation to return the Child(ren) to his/her Place of Residence. Should it be necessary for the Child(ren) to be accompanied by an attendant, Chubb Assistance shall pay for a qualified escort to accompany the Child(ren).

If the Child(ren) or a member of the Insured Person's family designates a return destination other than the Insured Person's Place of Residence, Chubb Assistance shall make the travel arrangements, purchase the tickets and pay for such travel, up to the cost of travel to the Place of Residence of the Insured Person. Any extra expense will be charged to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account.

1.7 Transportation of a travelling companion

If a decision is made to evacuate or repatriate an Insured Person to another Hospital or treatment facility, Chubb Assistance will provide for one-way air transportation for one travelling companion (the "Covered Travelling Companion") to return to the Place of Residence of the Insured Person under the following circumstances:

- (a) if the original ticket of the Covered Travelling Companion has become invalid as a result of delay caused by the Sickness or Bodily Injury of the Insured Person, the class of air transportation will be the same, if available, as the Covered Travelling Companion's original ticket;
- (b) if the Covered Travelling Companion holds no ticket to return to the Place of Residence, Chubb Assistance will provide for one-way economy class transportation. If the Covered Travelling Companion designates a return other than the Place of Residence of the Insured Person, Chubb Assistance shall make the travel arrangements, purchase the tickets and pay for such travel up to the cost of the travel to the Place of Residence of the Insured Person provided above. Any extra expense will be charged to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account.

1.8 Transmission of urgent messages

If Chubb Assistance has been notified that an Insured Person has been admitted to a medical facility, within forty-eight (48) hours of such admission or at the time when the Insured Person is first reachable by telephone, whichever is the latest, Chubb Assistance shall ask the Insured Person admitted to the medical facility whether he/she would like Chubb Assistance to contact the immediate family, next-of-kin or business associates. Chubb Assistance shall use its best efforts to make any such contact requested by the Insured Person. As long as Chubb Assistance exercises due care and transmits such information in a reasonable manner, Chubb Assistance shall have no responsibility for, and the Insured Person shall indemnify Chubb Assistance for any damages caused by any information transmitted by Chubb Assistance on behalf of the Insured Person.

1.9 Transportation of the travelling companion to the new place of hospitalisation

When Chubb Assistance moves an Insured Person from one Hospital to another, other than a medical facility near his/her Place of Residence, Chubb Assistance shall arrange and pay for one travelling companion of the Insured Person or a family member who is with the Insured Person, but not both, to travel to the new Hospital location. The travelling companion will use the same mode and class of transport as the Insured Person, whenever practicable.

1.10 Emergency hotel expenses

Chubb Assistance will arrange and pay up to HK$1,500 per night for a hotel room, up to a maximum of five (5) nights, in case an Insured Person has to remain in the country where travelling for emergency medical treatment or further medical check ups, or for the purpose of convalescence monitored and agreed by a Designated Physician, if this treatment will extend the trip duration of the Insured Person beyond his/her original plans.

1.11 Repatriation of mortal remains

In case of death of an Insured Person, Chubb Assistance shall arrange the prompt transportation of the mortal remains back to his/her Place of Residence. Chubb Assistance shall pay all associated expenses, including up to HK$5,500 for a coffin or other encasement of remains suitable for travelling purposes, excluding the cost of any ceremonies or burial. The choice of coffin or encasement is at the discretion of Chubb Assistance.

1.12 Return home on the death of a relative

Chubb Assistance shall make travel arrangements and pay for the cost of an Insured Person, including but not limited to purchasing an economy class airline ticket, to return as soon as possible to his/her Place of Residence in the event of death of a relative, in order to attend the deceased's funeral, of any one of the following residing in Hong Kong: father, mother, parent-in-law, legal spouse, child, brother or sister, providing the Insured Person's travel ticket is not valid for an early return to his/her Place of Residence.

1.13 Referrals to medical service providers

Chubb Assistance shall provide an Insured Person with the name, address and telephone number of a nearby medical service provider, such as doctors, Hospitals and clinics. Wherever possible, the Insured Person will be provided with the details of two or more providers. The final selection of the provider shall be the responsibility of the Insured Person.

1.14 Replacement of spectacles / contact lenses / prescribed medicines

Chubb Assistance will arrange and organise transportation of replacement spectacles or contact lenses left behind or lost or urgently needed prescribed medicines by an Insured Person not readily available in the country in which the Insured Person is travelling, provided that the Insured Person is able to provide sufficient information to Chubb Assistance to locate the optical provider regularly used by him/her, or in the case of medicines, the necessary prescriptions. Costs of research, transport, and packing will be paid by Chubb Assistance. The cost of replacement lenses, spectacles or medicines, and any costs incurred due to import duties or taxes will be charged to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account within thirty (30) days from the date of shipment.

2. General Restrictions

- 2.1 There may be certain countries where emergency medical assistance services are not available or capabilities may be limited. The following conditions restrict the ability to render these standard assistance services: War/civil strife/invasion, natural disasters, Riots/terrorist activities/hostilities; Strikes or industrial actions; circumstances where there is danger of explosion/nuclear radiation/economic sanctions etc.
- 2.2 In the event of a medical emergency, when a Designated Physician, in consultation with a local attending Physician, determines it is medically necessary for an Insured Person to be transported to a different Hospital or repatriated to his/her Place of Residence for proper medical treatment, Chubb Assistance will arrange and pay for the transport under proper medical supervision. All decisions as to the medical need for evacuation/repatriation, the means and/or timing of any evacuation/repatriation, the medical equipment and medical crew to be used, and final destination, are medical decisions which will be made by the Designated Physician in consultation with a local treating Physician based on medical factors, and their decisions shall be conclusive in determining the need for such services.
- 2.3 Except for Designated Physicians, the health care professionals, and/or any other professional who provides the services enumerated herein, are independent contractors and Chubb Assistance shall not be liable for the negligence or other wrongful acts or other omissions of such health care professionals.

3. Exclusions

3.1 Existing medical conditions

Chubb Assistance shall have no obligation to provide medical assistance to an Insured Person where the Sickness giving rise to the necessity of medical attention falls within any of the following categories: illness arising from a medical

3.3 Failure to notify Chubb Assistance

The Company and Chubb Assistance shall not be held responsible or liable for any services not directly performed by Chubb Assistance or shall not reimburse any party under any circumstances if Chubb Assistance has not been involved in performing the assistance services.

3.4 Limitation of ticket arrangement

When Chubb Assistance organises a repatriation or other transportation, and if the covered claim does not oblige Chubb Assistance to change the date on which the Insured Person has initially planned to go back home, or if the Insured Person's ticket can be modified, Chubb Assistance shall ask the Insured Person to use his/her ticket. In instances where Chubb Assistance has paid the Insured Person's transportation back home, the Insured Person shall send his/her unused ticket to Chubb Assistance.

4. Legal Services

4.1 Referrals and advance of lawyers' fees

Chubb Assistance shall provide an Insured Person with the name, address and telephone number of a local lawyer. Wherever possible the Insured Person shall be referred to two or more lawyers. Although the final selection of a lawyer shall be the responsibility of the Insured Person, Chubb Assistance guarantees that any lawyer to which it refers to the Insured Person shall be admitted to practice in accordance with the laws of the relevant jurisdiction, be of good repute and has not been the subject of any reprimand or malpractice proceedings. Chubb Assistance shall advance emergency funds to the Insured Person to pay for fees and costs associated with such representation, up to US$10,000. This amount will be billed to the Insured Person's Platinum Card Account within thirty (30) days from the date of advance of the legal fee.

In the event of any payment under Part I of this Policy, the Company shall be subrogated to all the Insured Person's rights of recovery therefore against any person or organization and the Insured Person shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured Person shall take no action after the loss to prejudice such rights.

4. Physical Examination and Autopsy

The Company at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the Insured Person when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim under Section I of Part I in this Policy and to make an autopsy in the case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

5. Legal Actions

No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this Policy prior to the expiration of sixty (60) days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of the Policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of one (1) year after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished.

6. Arbitration

All differences arising out of this Policy shall be determined by Arbitration in accordance with the prevailing Arbitration Ordinance. If the parties fail to agree upon the choice of Arbitrators or Umpires then the choice shall be referred to the Chairman for the time being of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre. It is hereby expressly stipulated that it shall be a condition precedent to any right of action or suit upon this Policy that an arbitration award shall be first obtained.

7. Interest

No amount payable under this Policy shall carry interest.

8. Currency

Benefits payable under this Policy shall be in Hong Kong currency.

9. Notice of Trust and Assignment

The Company shall not be bound to accept or be affected by any notice of any trust, charge, lien, assignment or other dealing with or related to this Policy.

10. Governing Law

This Policy shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with Hong Kong SAR Law, except as otherwise stated herein.

In witness whereof, the Company has caused this Policy to be executed and commence on the first day of the Period of Insurance stated in the Policy. Provided that no insurance shall be in force unless the Policy Schedule attached hereto is signed by an authorised representative of the Company.

11. Rights Of Third Parties

Any person or entity who is not a party to this Policy shall have no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Ordinance (Cap 623 of the Laws of Hong Kong) to enforce any terms of this Policy.

Part VIII - Making a Claim

If unfortunately an Insured Person needs to make a claim, the following advice may prove useful and help to bring about a speedy settlement.

1. Retain all the booking/purchase invoices/receipts. They have to be attached to the claim form.
2. If medical attention is received for Bodily Injury or Sickness, the Insured Person should, if possible, obtain receipts for all payments made plus a "Medical Certificate" showing the nature of the Bodily Injury or Sickness.
3. In case of an emergency call the American Express Platinum Cards Service Hotline immediately or within 5 days of such occurrence.
4. Any loss of money, credit card, or passport must be reported to the police or the consular general within 24 hours from discovery of loss and a written report obtained.
5. Any loss, destruction of or damage to baggage and personal effects should be reported immediately to the carrier, tour operator or hotel and a written report obtained. Evidence of value must be provided for items over HK$2,000.
6. Obtain a claim form without delay from the Company and return it together with supporting documentation.
7. Please call our Claims Hotline at (852) 2861 9281 during office hours for enquiry of claims issues.

Part IX - Personal Information Collection Statement

The Company (“We/Us”) want to ensure that Our Insured Persons (“You”) are confident that any personal data collected by Us is treated with the appropriate degree of confidentiality and privacy.

This Personal Information Collection Statement sets out the purposes for which We collect and use personally identifiable information provided by You (“Personal Data”), the circumstances when Personal Data may be disclosed and information regarding Your rights to request access to and correction of Personal Data.

(a) Purposes of Collection of Personal Data

We will collect and use Personal Data for the purposes of providing competitive insurance products and services to You, including considering Your application(s) for any new insurance policies and administering policies to be taken out with Us, arranging the cover and administering and managing Your and Our rights and obligations in relation to such cover. We also collect the Personal Data to be able to develop and identify products and services that may interest You, to conduct market or customer satisfaction research, and to develop, establish and administer alliances and other arrangements with other organisations in relation to the promotion, administration and use of Our respective products and services. We may also use your Personal Data in other ways with your consent.

(b) Transfer of Personal Data

Personal Data will be kept confidential and We will not sell Your Personal Data to any third party. We limit the disclosure of Your Personal Data but, subject to the provisions of any applicable law, Your Personal Data may be disclosed to:

- (i) third parties who assist Us to achieve the purposes set out in paragraph a. For example, We provide it to Our relevant staff and contractors, agents and others involved in the above purposes such as data processors, professional advisers, loss adjudicators and claims investigators, doctors and other medical service providers, emergency assistance providers, insurance reference bureaus or credit reference bureaus, government agencies, reinsurers and reinsurance brokers (which may include third parties located outside Hong Kong);
- (ii) Our parent and affiliated companies, or any company within Chubb local and outside Hong Kong;
- (iii) the insurance intermediary through which You accessed the system;
- (iv) provided to others for the purposes of public safety and law enforcement; and
- (v) other third parties with your consent.

With regard to the above transfers of Personal Data, where applicable, You consent to the transfer of Your Personal Data outside of Hong Kong.

(c) Access and correction of Personal Data

Under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (“PDPO”), You have the right to request access to and correction of Personal Data held by Us about You and We will grant You access to and correct Your Personal Data as requested by You unless there is an applicable exemption under the PDPO under which We may refuse to do so. You may also request Us to inform You of the type of Personal Data held by Us about You.

Requests for access or correction of Personal Data should be addressed in writing to:
