

AMERICAN EXPRESS® BANKING CORP. CITIZENS' CHARTER

This charter for customers explains our commitment and responsibilities along with our grievance redressal methods and also specifies the required obligation of customers for healthy practices in customer-banker relationships.

This is not a legal document creating rights and obligations. The charter has been prepared to promote fair banking practices and to give information in respect of various activities relating to customer service.

We wish to acknowledge the initiative taken by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India and Ministry of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances for encouraging us to bring out this charter.

We review customer feedback on an ongoing basis via Voice of Customer Surveys, Customer Meets, feedback through complaints, etc. to improve and widen the range of services we offer to our customers. Also, we request our customers to keep us informed of their experiences about the various services rendered by the Bank and feel free to comment on this charter.

REDRESSAL OF COMPLAINTS

At American Express we truly believe in providing best in class services to our customers. We aim to understand both our strengths and dissatisfies from our customer's point of view and work across our business units to meet their needs.

Our Grievance Redressal Policy focuses to improve customer satisfaction by collecting feedback from customers across all business units and action plans are put in place to address key issues (including vendor related issues) which are assigned to the relevant senior leaders to action.

We have a complaints management tool which automatically generates complaint number and allows us to automatically track the ageing of the complaint, which is then systematically reported to our Senior Management periodically. In addition the ageing of all complaints are reported and escalated to the Senior Management via an established process. Our endeavor is to ensure that all customer complaints are resolved within 30 days. The 30 day period will be reckoned after all the necessary information sought from the customer is received.

For complete details of various channels through which our customers can contact us for any assistance or redressal of their grievances, including grievances/ complaints related to mobile banking facility please refer to the AEBC Grievance Redressal Policy on www.americanexpress.co.in
