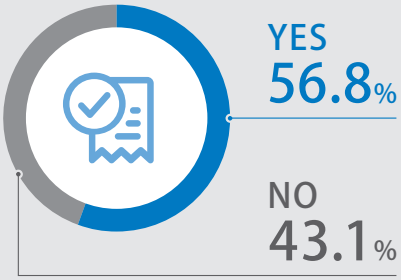
Have you experienced any of the following issues when settling business expenses?

According to a survey, we found that 1 out of 2 office workers have paid for business expenses out of their own pockets in the past.

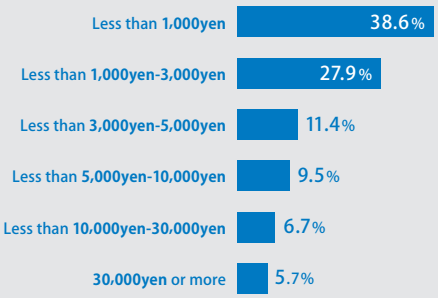
Q.1

Have you ever paid for business expenses using your own money?



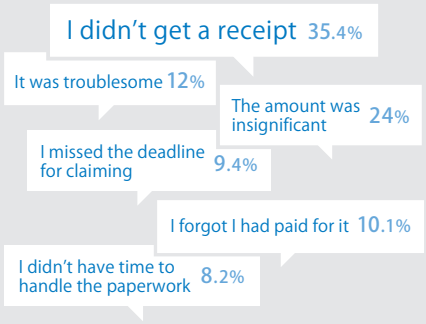
Q.2

How much, on average, did you pay out of your own pocket when you were unable to settle the expenses?



Q.3

What was the reason for paying out of your own pocket?



It seems the smaller the amount, the more employees tend to pay out of their own pockets.
