DIRECT MARKETING

From time to time, American Express, its agents and business partners (including insurance companies) will send you and any additional Card Members information about products, services, offers and other promotions on offer from American Express or jointly with its business partner. These communications may be sent electronically (for example by email, mobile message or push notification), by phone or by post. You can opt-out from receiving direct marketing at any time by calling 0800 656 660. You can also adjust your communication preferences using our Online Preferences or opt-out of email marketing by clicking "unsubscribe" in the footer of our emails. This will continue until you opt-out or until twelve months after you cease being an American Express Card Member.

AUTHORITY TO AMERICAN EXPRESS UNDER THE PRIVACY ACT 2020 (NZ):

In this section "personal information" means information about The Business, the Primary Card Applicant and any Employee Card Applicant(s), including financial circumstances, credit worthiness, credit history, credit standing, credit capacity, use of the Card and conduct of the Account and "organisation" means the organisation, if any, whose name, logo or trademark appears on this application or on the Card issued.

For the avoidance of doubt, no credit checks will be performed on Employee Card Applicant(s) in relation to this application.

To confirm your identity and the identity of any Employee Card Applicants, and to assess your application, and, if it is approved, to establish and manage your Card Account, American Express International (NZ), Inc. needs to:

- Collect personal information about The Business, the Primary Card Member and any Employee Card Applicants in this application form and from other sources, and
- Obtain agreement from the Business and the Primary Card Member in relation to using this personal information.

If you do not provide the information requested or give your agreement American Express may decline your application.

You agree that, subject to the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ), American Express and its agents may do the following (and provided the application is approved, this agreement continues until such time as the Account is closed and any credit provided is repaid): and

- Obtain credit reports and any other reports about you (relating to this application or otherwise) before, during or after American Express provide services to you, from credit reporting agencies and other businesses that provide commercial credit worthiness information, for the purposes of identity verification and to assess this application.
- Verify with the NZTA, driver's licence information provided to American Express.

- Disclose personal information to credit reporting agencies before, during or after providing credit to you. This includes, but is not limited to:
    - that you have applied for a Card and the credit limit, and that American Express is a credit provider to you;
    - advice about Card payments at least 60 days overdue and which are in collection (and advice that payments are no longer overdue);
    - advice that cheque(s) drawn by you, or Direct Debit requests to your financial institution account which you have authorised American Express to make, which are more than $100 have been dishonoured more than once;
    - American Express' opinion that you do not intend to meet your credit obligations or that you have committed a serious credit infringement; and
    - that credit provided to you has been paid or otherwise discharged.
  - Exchange personal information with credit providers named in this application or in a credit report issued by a credit reporting agency. This is for purposes including but not limited to:
    - assessing your creditworthiness, this application and any subsequent application by you for credit;
    - notifying other credit providers of a default by you;
    - exchanging information about your Card account where you are in default with other credit providers;
    - American Express' approval process as to any transactions you wish to make with the Card; and
    - American Express' administration of your account.
  - Exchange personal information with any person whose name you give American Express from time to time. This includes, for example, for the purpose of confirming employment and income details with any employer, landlord/mortgagee, accountant, financial adviser or tax agent named in this application.
  - If you are in default under your Card Account, notify and exchange personal information with an American Express collection agent.
  - Transfer personal information confidentially to American Express related companies and other organisations which issue or service American Express Cards or provide services to you, subject to appropriate conditions of confidentiality. This includes transferring personal information to the USA or other countries for data processing and servicing.
  - Monitor and record your telephone conversations with American Express from time for training, quality control or verification purposes.
  - Exchange personal information with the organisation named on the application form for marketing, planning, product development and informational purposes including for the administration of a rewards programme, if any.
- You also agree that where you have provided American Express with information about another individual in this application form, you will make sure that the individual is aware of:
- you supplying their information to American Express and the purposes for which American Express have collected the information;
  - their ability to access that information in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ) (and advise American Express if they think the information is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date); and
  - the contact details of American Express' Privacy Officer.

CONTACTING THE AMERICAN EXPRESS PRIVACY OFFICER

In accordance with the Privacy Act 2020 (NZ), any person may access personal information about them held by American Express, and advise if they think it is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date.
