Multi-lending Policy Terms and Conditions

In general, each Card Member is allowed to hold one American Express Charge Card and up to two American Express Credit Cards (of which only one can be a American Express® Singapore Airlines Credit Card) issued by American Express in Singapore. If, with this current application, you will exceed the maximum number of Card(s) allowed within each category* (as determined by American Express in its sole and absolute discretion from time to time), then your existing Card in the corresponding category will be cancelled upon approval of this application.

The following Terms and Conditions apply if any of your existing Credit Cards are cancelled, as set above:

- Existing Supplementary Credit Card(s) of the cancelled basic Charge/Credit Card will automatically be cancelled upon approval of your new Credit Card application. You will need to reapply for the Supplementary Credit Card(s) on your new Card.
- Fees paid on the cancelled Credit Card(s) will be pro-rated, where applicable.
- If you are on recurring payment arrangements with any of your service provider(s) and other organization(s) and wish to ensure that they are not disrupted, please contact the respective organization(s) to provide your new Credit Card number. This includes GIRO payments.
- Any charges and/or outstanding balance will be transferred to the new Credit Card at our prevailing interest rate applicable to the new Credit Card. If you were enjoying a promotional rate on your Credit balance, the interest rate charged after transfer to the new Credit Card may be higher than the promotional rate.
- Any Cashback accrued will be forfeited.
- By choosing to have more than one American Express Card, the overall credit limit assigned to you will be split and assigned to each Basic Card Account that you maintain. You have the flexibility to change the limits assigned to each basic Card Account by contacting American Express upon approval of your new Credit Card application.
